About the directory

This directory has been produced by Burton Latimer Town Council as a service to the local community. It aims to support businesses based in our town, and to highlight the variety of local sports and social activities on offer.

The lists have been compiled by a team of volunteers, who have tried hard to identify and include as many local businesses, organisations and groups as possible. However, if you are aware of any that have inadvertently been left out, or that the information provided is wrong, please forward the correct details to: The Burton Latimer Directory, Burton Latimer Civic Centre, 120 High Street Burton Latimer NN15 5RH; or email council@burtonlatimer.org.

The directory will be updated annually to take account of any changes, and to correct any errors or omissions that have been reported.

Please note that a listing in this directory does not imply any form of recommendation or endorsement by Burton Latimer Town Council. Furthermore, while every effort has been made to check the accuracy of the information presented, Burton Latimer Town Council can accept no liability for any errors or omissions, or for any loss or damage incurred by users of the businesses, organisations and groups listed in these pages.

Clubs & societies

Burton Latimer Allotments Association

Contact: Emma Collins (Secretary)

@ blaa.enquiries@aol.co.uk

We are part of The National Society of Allotment and Leisure Gardeners, and have a 10-year lease on a 4.5 acre site at the end of Jacques Road (off Higham Road). There are currently over 70 gardeners tending plots of various sizes – and there is a waiting list of 10 persons. A committee oversees the running of the site, and our AGM is held on the last Thursday in March.

We meet for a meal at Wellingborough Golf Club on Tuesdays, and use our various skills to help the local community. Recent projects in local schools include awards for Young Chef, Young Writer, Young Musician, Young Photographer, and Youth Speaks (public speaking). We also raise funds for local churches and organisations, and take disadvantaged children to Wicksteed Park every year. We have some excellent social events – and would welcome new members.

Royal British Legion – Burton Latimer branch

Contact: Mr Les Facer (Chairman)

 01536 398503

Meetings are held at 7.30pm in the Civic Centre on the last Thursday of each month (except August and December). Membership is open to all – not just those associated with the armed forces. We support ex-service personnel and their dependants in Burton Latimer, and our volunteers run the local house-to-house collection as part of the annual poppy appeal.

Royal British Legion – Women's Section

Contact: Helen Featherstone (Hon Secretary)

 01536 723173

Meetings are held at 7.30pm at the Band Club on the first Monday of the month (except January). Our annual calendar of meetings and social functions raises funds for the Royal British Legion. Membership is open to all.

Guides, Brownies & Rainbows

Contact: See website, below.

 www.girlguiding.org.uk

Burton Latimer District provides guiding experiences for girls aged between 5 years at Rainbows through to our adult members in the Trefoil Guild.

Follow the links on the Girl Guiding website - or join us at one of our monthly coffee mornings (held at The Guide Centre in Alexandra Street on the first Saturday of the month, from 10am - 12noon) to speak to someone directly.
